

Procurement with Purpose – How organizations can change the way they spend money NOW to protect the planet and its people – based on the acclaimed book published in November 2022, Peter will share insights on how procurement can contribute to wider global issues. “This may be the best procurement book ever!” (Darin Matthews, CPO, Cal Poly and Past President, NIGP)

After graduating from the University of Cambridge, Peter started his procurement career at Mars Confectionery, then was Procurement Director for Dun & Bradstreet Europe, the UK Government’s Department of Social Security, and the NatWest Group. He was elected a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Purchasing and Supply and was President in 2003. He served as a Senior Adviser to the UK Finance Ministry and National Audit Office, has been a non-exec director of two large public sector organizations and a growing private firm. He founded his consulting firm, Procurement Excellence Ltd. in 2004 and from 2010-18 he was Managing Editor of the Spend Matters Europe website, read by thousands of procurement professionals every day. Outside business, his hobbies are cycling, gym, growing vegetables, cooking, wine, playing the bass guitar and going to rock concerts!
