

Mastering Audit Preparedness in Public Procurement

Presenter

HCDE Director of Procurement Services Edna Johnson, Ed.D., oversees the continuous commitment to customer service while transparently acquiring goods and services to support the needs of the Department's internal divisions. Dr. Johnson is a Certified Texas Contract Manager (CTCM) and Registered Texas School Business Administrator (RTSBA). She is a member of the Association of School Business Officials (ASBO), the National Institute of Governmental Purchasing (NIGP), and the Texas Association of School Business Officials (TASBO). As a member of these professional organizations, she has been a national conference presenter, served on numerous committees, and is a purchasing mentor. She holds a doctoral degree in education from the University of New England, a Master of Public Administration from Villanova University, and a bachelor's degree in political science from Texas Southern University.

Summary:

This presentation provides a comprehensive guide and real world lessons learned to audit readiness in public procurement, focusing on Federal (2 CFR Part 200), State (Texas Education Code & Government Code), and Local (board policy) requirements.