

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS CARLTON N. PARKER AWARD 2022

By Christina Pryor, CPPO, 2021 CNP Award Recipient

The Carlton N. Parker Award is the most prestigious award presented to an individual by the National Procurement Institute (NPI).

Established in 1975, this award was developed as a symbol of recognition from the Officers, Directors and members of a grateful organization for dedicated service and outstanding contributions to the development and progress of the National Procurement Institute and the public procurement profession. In 2002, the SAFOS Award was renamed as the Carlton N. Parker Award for Outstanding Service, in honor of his many contributions to the advancement of the National Procurement Institute and the procurement profession. It has been awarded to 48 distinguished members to date.

The criteria for receiving the award, as established by the NPI Board of Directors, requires that the nominee has made outstanding contributions to the development and progress of NPI and the public procurement profession.

All NPI members are encouraged to nominate a public procurement professional who is deserving of this award. Nominations must be submitted to Christina Pryor at christina.pryor@chandleraz.gov no later than Friday, August 26, 2022. The nomination form is available at <https://www.npi-aep.org/carlton-n-parker-award>.
